As a film directed by Christopher Landon (“Happy Death Day”), Kathryn Newton’s character, Millie Kessler, is a depressed teenager trying to get through her last year of high school when she suddenly becomes the new target of a serial killer known as “The Blissfield Butcher”, played by Vince Vaughn. During the attack, a magic dagger causes the victim and the serial killer to switch bodies, leaving Millie with only 24 hours left to undo the curse, otherwise she would remain trapped in the form of a middle-aged maniac forever.

Kathryn Newton is known for her roles in different movies and TV shows. The actress has been part of HBO's award-winning “Big Little Lies” cast as Abigail, Reese Witherspoon’s rebellious teenage daughter. Newton has also worked in two movies which were nominated for both the Oscars and the Golden Globe: the hilarious films “Lady Bird”, written and directed by Greta Gerwig, and the police drama “Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri”, by director Martin McDonagh. In 2017, she mentioned in Variety’s annual “Young Hollywood Impact Report” list.

Vince Vaughn is most surely a professional actor with several qualities and abilities. In addition to being an actor, he is also a renowned comedian, producer and screenwriter in the North-American movie industry. Some of his most recent work included the character Freddy Funkhouser in the 10th season of HBO's “Curb Your Enthusiasm”. The artist also worked in “Seberg” alongside Kristen Stewart, Anthony Mackie, and Jack O’Connell. In 2016, he starred the World War II drama “Hacksaw Ridge”, which was nominated for an Oscar in six categories and a Golden Globe in three.
